

135 Meeting of The B.P.C.
Held at The Broughton Hotel 14 April 1914.
Mr. Pickwick Presiding.

Surrounded by Mr. Bantam - Snodgrass. Sam Weller.
Bob Sawyer. Trundle. Lowton. J. Lottie Pott. Jingle. Reg. Rubbin. Cap. Dowler & 6 visitors.

Mr. Pickwick opened the proceedings with a few remarks, as Club business.
I gave a hearty welcome - to the visitors.
One of whom was an old school fellow & playmate of mine in boyhood days.
We hoped they would enjoy the evening - The minutes of the previous meeting were read & confirmed.

The first to have the honor of being fined was Job Lottie. For speaking to Bob Sawyer. - After which Job gave a good selection on the piano.

Mr. Pickwick then called upon Job M. Jingle singing. My little grey horse in the bush.

which he did in his own sweet way - Mr Bloom. a visit song Shipmate - which was well applauded.

Mr. Pickwick was so delighted to hear his friend sing so well. That he called Capt. Dowler. Jack. & was fined for being so familiar

The P.O.C could be seen struggling with Kitty Gray & coming up on his finger the cost of a round of refreshments.

Mr. took so much valuable time. That he was instructed to advise the Bob boy. to come for order any day - Inimata

Mr. Pott. was called upon to read the usual portion for the Pickwick Paper.
entitled - the Conversation between Mr. Pickwick & Sam Weller. During which he repeatedly begged. the members sitting next to him to keep quiet. if Jack he was heard to say. for the love of Heaven shut up.
Bob Sawyer then tried to sing - but was absolutely thwarted up. by Job Trotter.

who played a different tune altogether.
So that Bob Sawyer, being of a nervous disposition collapsed - & slept back to his seat at the table.

Dr. C. King a visitor sang. I fear no Joe - shin, Arrow.

Dr. H. King a visitor sang. When the heart is young.

Sam Wells sang. no more stoppin out late. in which he included the Havana & the binano.

10. P.M. we now called of all sort of praise the health of Absent. Members.
Dr. Bloom sang. another song. I was encored. this being Mollie Mc Cree - - Jim Caratone voice -

The Brother King sang - the Auld - The moon hath raised the Camp above - followed - with Ecclesiast -

Cup Dowler. though this was no good that he called for wine for the whole company. I was noted a good fellow

Judge song. the beautiful song. Absent-the song concluded the harmony of the evening. Mr. Pelt proposed the Chairman Mr. Pickwick & Coupled. John Smith & the gentlemen who had so well entertained - Mr. Prodyan seconded. Mr. Pickwick replied & Mr. Bloom led off with the King & the closed the 155th meeting.

Sam. Pickwick
May 12/14

Bob Sawyer -